Flood Relief Donations

Over 60,000 homes were damaged in the Midwest flood this Spring. Some of the most damaged areas are in Nebraska and South Dakota. The NALC Disaster Relief will be dispatching Volunteer groups to Dannebrog, NE, the Danish Capital of the State. The Dannebrog area is home to Faith Lutheran Church, a NALC congregation. Many homes are destroyed or significantly damaged. FEMA is working with families but even those with Flood Insurance are looking at tremendous expenses that will not be covered. The NALC Disaster Relief is planning on helping with clean-up and rebuilding. To that end they are looking for donations with which to purchase gift cards to businesses that can provide building materials – like Home Depot, Lowe’s, Menards, etc.

Throughout the month of May, Emmanuel Lutheran will collect funds which we will forward to Mary Bates, the NALC Disaster Coordinator.

Please make your checks payable to Emmanuel but note “Disaster Relief” in the memo.
