Listen! You nations of the world: listen to the Word of the Lord.

Announce it from coast to coast; declare it to distant islands.

*1. The Lord who scattered Israel will gather his people again;
and he will keep watch over them as a shepherd watches his flocks.*

*Listen! You nations of the world: listen to the Word of the Lord.
Announce it from coast to coast; declare it to distant islands.*

2. With shouts of joy they will come, their faces radiantly happy, for the Lord is so gen'rous to them; he showers his people with gifts

*Listen! You nations of the world: listen to the Word of the Lord.
Announce it from coast to coast; declare it to distant islands.*

*3. Young women will dance for joy, and men young and old will make merry.
Like a garden refreshed by the rain, they will never be in want again.*

*Break into shouts of great joy: Jacob is free again!
Teach nations to sing the song: "The Lord has saved his people!"*

P: The Lord be with you. C: And also with you

Prayer of the Day: O God, you have prepared for those who love you joys beyond understanding. Pour into our hearts such love for you that, loving you above all things, we may obtain your promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Congregational Workshop with Pastor Christopher Staley of St Ansgar, the NALC Dean of the Iowa Mission District...will take place immediately following worship Today. Please come down to the Fellowship Hall and get some refreshments so we may begin in a timely fashion. Lunch will be served at the appropriate break time. This is your opportunity to participate, give input, and prepare for the calling of a new Pastor at Emmanuel. Please plan to attend- the more people, the more input into this important step in our call process.

For Emergency Pastoral care... Pastor Paul Weeg from Northwood, has agreed to be our Emergency Pastoral Contact from Wednesday, June 23rd- Sept 1st. His number is 641-381-0675. We thank Pastor Weeg for his willingness to serve Emmanuel in this way

An Update on The Call Process

[Excerpts taken from the Call Process Manual from the NALC]

“When a pastor resigns, retires, or a congregation experiences a pastoral vacancy for some other reason, the congregational lay leadership will immediately consult with the ABME (assistant to the bishop for ministry and ecumenism), and inform their mission district (MD) dean. (Our ABME is Pastor David Wendel from Florida and our MD Dean is Pastor Christopher Staley from St. Ansgar).

Emmanuel elected a slate of six candidates to become the Call Committee on Sunday, April 25th, 2021. A meeting took place between the Church Council, Call Committee, and Dean Staley on May 17th, 2021. The purpose of this meeting was to discuss the Call process. The Council’s duty is to find emergency Pastoral care until such time as an Interim can be found. Our Lay Ministry has lined up Pastoral supply until Labor Day. At the end of the meeting, the Call Committee met separately to appoint a Chairperson and Secretary and each member was given a copy of the NALC Call Process Manual.

The next step to the process was for the Call Committee to meet with Pastor David Wendel, via a conference call. This was done on June 3rd. “During this call, the ABME will provide orientation, explanation and training for the work of the call committee.”

Today’s Congregational Workshop is the next step of the Call Process. Based on the discussion and input from today’s workshop, “the Call committee is to complete the ‘Congregational Profile.’” Once completed, this is submitted to Pastor Wendel so that our profile can be added to the “Call Process Vacancy List on the NALC website.” The Call committee will also be creating a short video about Emmanuel to submit as well. After this is completed, it is our “Wait and see” step of the process, according to Dean Staley. Average time for a call is 8 ½ months after the congregational profile is submitted.

A word to the Congregation: “...the call process is a spiritual process of discernment led by the Holy Spirit. It is God’s process, not the congregation’s. It will take whatever time God intends, so there will be no rushing to judgment...Calling a pastor is not the equivalent of “hiring an employee.” It is much more relational and covenantal. Calling a pastor is much more like a marriage, and the call process more similar to finding a mate for life...Ask that all members be in regular prayer for the call committee and congregational leadership. Ask all to pray that God will be working in the heart and life of the pastor He wishes to call as your next pastor, that the pastor be open to the working of the Holy Spirit. Prayer will be as essential a part of your call process as everything the call committee does! ...the call process is about “Waiting for the Lord.” “In Psalm 27, the psalmist writes, ‘Wait for the LORD; be strong, and let your heart take courage; wait for the LORD!’”
